TERMS AND CONDITIONS WAIVER

The artwork(s) provided is original, is the sole intellectual property of the artist, with no copyright infringements, and adheres to all guidelines set out in the submission requirements for the 2019 Timeraiser exhibit.

The artwork(s) is properly framed and safe to be hung with a professional gallery hanging system and safe to be in public space. Artwork that is not acceptable or deemed unsafe for the gallery space will be returned without pay and will only be accepted back once deemed appropriate and safe.

The final selection of artwork will be evaluated and approved by FuseSocial, Arts Council Wood Buffalo and the MacDonald Island Art Gallery for curatorial purposes.

After payment from FuseSocial, the artwork becomes the sole property of FuseSocial. Therefore, FuseSocial has the right to re-sell the artwork, add to future projects including future Timeraiser events and/or give as a donation

In the event that the artwork is not bid on during the 2019 Wood Buffalo Timeraiser or the winning bidder for the 2019 Timeraiser event does not complete their hours by the chosen date, the artwork will be property of FuseSocial to use as stated above.
